

Dana Reizniece – Director of Latvia’s first satellite “Venta-1” development

Dana Reizniece obtained her Master’s degree in Translation and Terminology and presently is at her Doctoral studies at the same Ventspils University College.

She is a Member of Board of Foundation “Ventspils High Technology Park” at present and her previous jobs include Director of Ventspils Technology Park, Assistant Professor at Ventspils University College, Head of Investment of Ventspils City Council.

Dana Reizniece at previous is member of Space Working Group of Ministry of Education and Science, member of Association of Latvian Technology Parks, Centres and Business Incubators, member of Ventspils Technology Development Board, member Education Commission of Ventspils City Council. Previously she also was a member of Tourism Commission of Ventspils City Council and a member of Latvian Chess Federation.

Dana Reizniece’s activities also covers facilitation of ESA-Latvian 1st level cooperation agreement conclusion, work on development of Space Technologies Cluster in Latvia, development and operation of Ventspils Business Incubator and Kurzeme Business Incubator, support for development of Engineering Faculty in Ventspils University College and many others.