

Marie Menard-Caër

Marie Menard-Caër serves in the Global Monitoring for Environment and Security Bureau.

She is in charge of communication and involved in the development of business opportunities for companies thanks to GMES services.

Before joining the European Commission, Marie worked in different consultancy companies in charge of business development.

Marie Menard-Caër has a PhD in Business Administration from IAE University and is graduated from Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Reims (France). She worked on the effects of social networks on the strategy development for small and medium organizations such as SMEs.