

Andrey Sidorenko

Andrey Sidorenko manages the works in the framework of «MEDEO» project in FP7 in Samara Space Center.

He is also the head of «Research of microgravitation and experiments on unmanned spacecrafts» section of the International Association of Space Activities Participants (IASP).

He participated in the following global international projects: in the framework of long-term programme of cooperation using “Foton” spacecrafts (ESA, CNES, DAZA, 1989-2007); implementing “Bion” spacecraft

(NASA, 1992-1996); launch of “Soyuz-Ikar” LV (“Starsem”, France 1996-2011) ; 24 “Globalstar” satellites, (“SS Loral”), 4 satellite “CLUSTER” (European Space Agency); development, production and delivery of testing stands according to the orders of Chinese space companies (1991-2002); launch of «Soyuz-ST» LV (Guiana Space Centre); other export-import contracts on the delivery of goods and services.