

Evgenia Tiulevina

Evgenia Tiulevina studies at the Post Graduate School of Samara State Airspace University (National institute). She works at the dissertation on the subject: «Competition in the field of space-rocket hardware in the conditions of globalization». She is a secretary of «Research of microgravitation and experiments on unmanned spacecrafts» section of International Association of Space Activities Participants (IASP).

She participates in the activities of «MEDEO» project development in the framework of FP7, she also takes part in works related to joint scientific experimentation in the outer space.