

Urmas Uska

Urmas Uska is Tartu University (Estonia) graduate in physics, has got international business management training at Estonian Business School. Urmas Uska had been employed in education field, at the local government and in international companies.

From 2007 he joined the Enterprise Estonia Space Team. In his responsibility has been development of international relations (Baltic region, Ukraine, USA, Pacific Region Countries etc.) and satellite technologies application promotion in Estonia (space awareness questions). Enterprise Estonia holds the leading role in ongoing FP7 project NordicBaltSat and Urmas Uska has been responsible for Space Awareness raising Work package (trainings for entrepreneurs and policy makers, Space Awareness Action Plan and conference).

Urmas Uska is also National Project Coordinator for Strategic Framework for EU Research and Innovation EUREKA.