

Victor Vorontsov

Victor Vorontsov was born in May 1952 in Lithuania. He is Chief Designer - Head of the Methodological Council of Lavochkin Association. He also works as Professor of the Moscow State Aviation Institute (Technical University); Corresponding Member of Russian Academy of Cosmonautics named by K.E. Tsiolkovsky; Corresponding Member of International Academy of Astronautics (IAA); His professional experience includes: Federal Enterprise "Lavochkin Association" (since 1975 till present time), from Engineer to Chief Designer (Venus Program); Head of the Methodological Council - Chief Designer - Venus Programme (since may 2010 till present time). He participated in the following projects: «Mars-75» («Mars Sample Return»), «Phobos-88», «Mars-92», «Mars-96», «Venera 9-10,11-12,13-14»); «Vega-1» and «Vega-2» (experiment on Venus atmosphere parameters studies by means of balloon probes); international projects: «Mars Together», «Mars Balloon», «Marsnet», «Mars Premier», «Netlander», «Carina», «Bioexplorer», «Fire and Ice», «Metlanders». He is Author of 120 publications.