

Dr Olivier MINSTER

Head Physical Sciences Unit, ISS Utilisation and Astronaut Support European Space Agency

Having been personally involved in a space experiment, Dr. Minster joined the ESA in 1988 to support the scientific coordination of the utilisation of the space environment for research in physics. He still coordinates the physical sciences part of ESA's ELIPS programme and has always actively promoted international cooperation in the definition and subsequent implementation of the space projects.