

Dr Radomir Jansky

Policy Officer
DG Enterprise and Industry
European Commission
Belgium

Radomír Janský is responsible for space policy matters in the European Commission's Directorate-General (DG) Enterprise and industry, Policy and Space Research Unit. Before joining DG ENTR in 2012, he worked for five years on cyber-crime in DG Home Affairs of the European Commission. Prior to that, he spent three years as parliamentary assistant in the European Parliament, covering the work of the Foreign Relations Committee. Radomír received a D.Phil. in Politics at the University of Oxford, Nuffield College. He also holds Masters degrees in Political Science and Economics from universities in the UK (Oxford), Hungary (Central European University) and the Czech Republic (University of West Bohemia).